CodeDrive Cookie Policy

Effective Starting: July 30, 2018

Cookies are small text files that can be used by websites to make a user's experience more efficient.
The law states that we can store cookies on your device if they are strictly necessary for the operation of this site.

Necessary cookies cannot be deselected. Necessary cookies help make a website usable by enabling basic functions like page navigation and access to secure areas of the website. The website cannot function properly without these cookies.

CodeDrive uses necessary first-party cookies to provide functionality of the website and to recognize you across different Services and devices, and third-party cookies for statistics.

What cookies do we use?
We use necessary cookies and other technologies, to improve and customize our products and websites ("the Services") and your experience; to allow you to access and use the Services without re-entering your username or password; to understand usage of our Services and the interests of our customers; to determine whether an email has been opened and acted upon.

Cookies we use include:
1. First-party cookies
   - user-input cookies to keep track of the user's input when filling online forms, shopping carts, etc., for the duration of a session, or persistent cookies limited to the duration of an operation such as purchase or trial;
   - user identification persistent cookies, to identify the user visited the website for the first time.
2. Third-party cookies
   - Google Analytics cookies to generate statistical data on how the visitor uses the website.

How do we use them?

Where strictly necessary. These cookies and other technologies are essential in order to enable the Services to provide the feature you have requested, such as remembering you have logged in.

For performance and analytics. These cookies and similar technologies collect information on how users interact with the Services and enable us to improve how the Services operate. For example, we use Google Analytics cookies for visitor statistics to give you the best, more relevant browsing experience and to improve our website.

How can you opt-out?
To opt-out of our use of cookies, you can instruct your browser, by changing its options, to stop accepting cookies or to prompt you before accepting a cookie from websites you visit. If you do not accept cookies, however, you may not be able to use our Services.

Updates to this Cookie Policy
This Cookie Policy may be updated from time to time. If we make any changes, we will notify you by revising the "effective starting" date at the top of this notice.
